

UBSNM

Outstanding Recommendations and Outstanding Areas of Interest October 25, 2020

Current outstanding Recommendations pertaining to this program (use specific wording)	Date CNME Board voted to adopt recommendation	Date by which recommendation must be satisfactorily addressed or further board action must be taken (2-year rule)	Miscellaneous Notes (board actions in regard to this recommendation and other information)
Recommendation I-1: The program needs to develop and adopt a set of program outcomes that are consistent with their new competencies. (Std. I.A.3)	May 19, 2019	May 19, 2021	Accreditation re-affirmed for 7 years (CNME's maximum accreditation period), retroactive to May 2018, when UBSNM was granted a six-month extension of its accreditation, with the next reaccreditation visit to be conducted in the spring of 2025
Recommendation VI-1: The clinical program must have access to an Electronic Health Records system that is suitable to the needs of the naturopathic medical clinical training program. (Std. VI.D.7)	May 19, 2019	May 19, 2021	Spring 2019: The University announced plans to discontinue offering the ND program and to not accept any new students into the program. The School of Naturopathic Medicine is engaged in teaching out the currently enrolled ND students; during the teach-out period, the ND program will retain its CNME accreditation
Recommendation VII-1: While elements of a program assessment plan have been developed, the program needs to complete and fully implement a comprehensive assessment plan. (Std. VII.B.1)	May 19, 2019	May 19, 2021
Recommendation VIII-1: The amount of naturopathic medicine-related research and scholarship at the institution needs to be increased. (Std. VIII.A.1)	May 19, 2019	May 19, 2021

UBSNM

Outstanding Recommendations and Outstanding Areas of Interest
October 25, 2020

Current outstanding Areas of Interest pertaining to this program (use specific wording)	Date CNME Board voted to adopt area of interest	Date by which area of interest must be satisfactorily addressed or further board action must be taken (2-year rule)	Miscellaneous Notes (board actions in regard to this area of interest and other information)
None	May 19, 2019	May 19, 2021	